The Story of the Racehorse Secretariat

Littleton resident Kate Chenery Tweedy had a front row seat when the legendary racehorse Secretariat thundered across America's racetracks and into sports history. Tweedy will come back to Bemis Library to tell this remarkable story Tuesday, January 11, 7:00-8:30 p.m. Kate's mother, Penny Chenery (Tweedy), went from being a suburban wife and mother in Littleton to becoming a national celebrity as the owner-manager of Secretariat from 1968 to 1973. As a teen during that turbulent time, Kate will reveal what it was like to experience Secretariat's astonishing career up close and she will also talk about her perspective on the recent film, Secretariat. Kate retells the story of her amazing family and their phenomenal horse in her new book, Secretariat's Meadow, the Land, the Family, the Legend. Copies of the book will be available for purchase and signing.

Musical Moments at Sophie's Place

Enjoy music in Sophie's Place. Monthly performances feature a variety of musical talent from Littleton and the Denver metro area.

Saturday, January 15, 2:00-3:00 p.m.: Jeff Wittig & Friends, a five-member band, will perform classic folk and rock songs. Wittig has performed on stage with A Prairie Home Companion. His CDs will be available for purchase.

Shared Joys and Sorrows: Islam, Christianity and Judaism

Twelve events in the lives of followers of Islam, Christianity and Judaism will be the focus of a photographic presentation by Dr. Richard Steckel on Sunday, January 23, 2:00-4:00 p.m. At this program, you will have an opportunity to meet some of the people featured in the photographs. Steckel and his wife Michele are founders of The Milestones Project, which promotes mutual respect and understanding between cultures and religions. Among the special family events that will be shown are first day at school, first grandchild, sharing a holiday meal, worshipping together, cherishing children and death of a grandparent. The Steckels believe that if we learn more about other peoples' faiths, intolerance can be replaced with understanding. Richard Steckel has an international reputation as an author, consultant, speaker and photographer. The Milestones Project has been honored by the United Nations and the National Education Association. Cookies and apple cider will be provided.

Saturday Movie Matinee: The Social Network

The highly acclaimed film about the creation of the website Facebook, The Social Network, will be featured on the library's big screen, Saturday, January 29, 2:00-4:00 p.m. In 2003, Harvard student and computer programming genius Mark Zuckerberg sat down at his computer and began working on a new idea. A mere six years and 500 million friends later, Mark Zuckerberg became the youngest billionaire in history, but for this entrepreneur, success led to both personal and legal complications. Free popcorn and beverages will be available at the showing.

Polly Pry, 1st Female Reporter at The Denver Post

Leonel Ross Campbell, better known as Polly Pry, was born in the South in 1857. Intelligent, beautiful, and from a socially elite family, she ran away from an exclusive boarding school at age 15. As the first female reporter for The Denver Post, her male co-workers resented her "flouncing skirts" in their newsroom. What gained Polly the most renown was her passionate campaign to free Colorado's famous cannibal, Alfred Packer, from prison. Polly Pry will be portrayed on Monday, January 24, 2:00-3:00 p.m. by Kay Negash, one of Colorado's most widely recognized storytellers.
