The Monthly Newsletter of Bemis Public Library

Soar into Summer Reading

Our summer reading programs have taken flight. Stop by the library to learn more and register. We have a program to suit every reader. All Bemis Summer Reading Programs continue through July 31.

Children: One World, Many Stories at Bemis. Kids from birth through those entering 5th grade may register and begin reading to earn prizes. See Page 3 for more details.

Teens: You Are Here. Register online at the library. Read and enter to win prizes. See the Bemis Library teen blog: <http://bemisteens.blogspot.com/> or Page 3 and 4 for more details about events and prize drawings.

Adults: It will be a summer to travel to Novel Destinations by reading. Register at the Information Desk and receive a gift. It's easy. Fill out a drawing slip for every book you read or listen to. Plus certain library activities will make you eligible for the drawings. Drawings will be held weekly and for the Grand Prize. Prizes will include a book bag, books, gift certificates to Littleton merchants, movie tickets and other novelties.

Musical Moments at Sophie's Place

Monthly performances feature a variety of musical talent from Littleton and the Denver metro area.

Saturday, June 4, 2:00-3:00 p.m.: Experience a high-energy musical performance featuring Uchu Rai Daiko, a taiko group of drummers. Taiko is a Japanese style of drumming that involves not only drumming, but rapid movements. Uchu Rai Daiko's ten performers, ranging in age from 7 to 18, have built their own drums from recycled tires. The name of the group, Uchu Rai Daiko, means "thunder of the cosmos."

Summer Movie Matinee: Eat, Pray, Love

An international quest to find peace and spiritual fulfillment is the focus of the film Eat, Pray, Love, which will be shown on the library's big screen, Saturday, June 18, 2:00-4:00 p.m. At a crossroads after a divorce, Liz Gilbert, played by Julia Roberts, takes a year-long sabbatical from her job and steps uncharacteristically out of her comfort zone, risking everything to change her life. In her exotic travels, she experiences the simple pleasure of nourishment by eating in Italy; the power of prayer in India, and, finally and unexpectedly, the inner peace and balance of love in Bali. The film is based on the bestselling true story, Eat, Pray, Love by Elizabeth Gilbert. Free popcorn and lemonade will be provided. Rated PG-13.

Hiking the Ruins and Rock Art of Southeastern Utah

The remote canyons of Southeastern Utah offer some of the best locations for finding ruins, ancient petroglyphs and pictograms. Phil Waltz, Nature Center and Outdoor Recreation Coordinator for South Suburban Parks and Recreation, will share his adventures and photos exploring these areas, Tuesday, June 21, 7:00-8:00 p.m. Ancestral Puebloans (also known as the Anasazi culture) thrived in the Four Corners region of Southeastern Utah from about AD 500 to AD 1300. They are well known for their rock art, stone masonry buildings, ornate pottery and woven baskets. In addition to sharing his own explorations, Waltz will talk about the best hiking trails in the Four Corners area for viewing ancient rock art and also, preserving these treasures.

From Bemis to Bestseller- A Booklover's Journey Around the Globe

Journalist Laura Fraser will talk about writing, traveling to exotic places and seeking love in her life, Tuesday, June 28, 7:00-8:30 p.m. Fraser's most recent book, All Over the Map, recounts her eight-year worldwide adventures from Naples to remote Pacific islands after a relationship ended. Laura Fraser has written for many national publications, including The New York Times, O, Vogue, Self, Glamour, Mother Jones and others. She works with several other San Francisco writers and filmmakers in a collective called The Grotto, where she also regularly teaches classes. Fraser is the author of several books, including two memoirs, and is the daughter of Littleton residents Chuck and Virginia Fraser.

Gabby Gourmet on the Best Restaurants in the Denver Area

Get tips on the best places to dine in the Denver area from Pat Miller, known as the Gabby Gourmet and one of Denver's leading restaurant reviewers on Monday, June 27, 2:00-3:00 p.m. Miller is the author of an annual guide to restaurants in the greater Denver area and has been a local TV and radio personality for the past 31 years.

NEW Download Audiobooks, eBooks, Videos and Music from the Bemis Website

Bemis has expanded its services with audiobooks, eBooks, music, and video, available to download. Library card holders can check out and download digital media anytime, anywhere by visiting <http://bemis.sirsi.net> and clicking on "Digital Downloads" or simply going to the website <http://coloradocd.lib.overdrive.com>. The library has joined the Across Colorado Digital Consortium, a group of over 15 local libraries, to provide free access to a large collection of downloadable titles for adults, teens and children. You can browse the collection, check out with your library card, and download to PC, Mac, and many mobile devices. To get started, you will need to install free software. Titles can be enjoyed immediately or transferred to a variety of devices, including iPod, Sony Reader, and many others; free download of titles to Kindle devices will be available in a few months. Titles will automatically expire at the end of the lending period. There are no late fees! With hundreds of popular fiction and non-fiction titles to choose from, the new collection is guaranteed to have something for everyone. You can download best-selling novels, well-known classics, self-improvement guides, and much more.

Book Groups at Bemis

We have a variety of Book Groups that meet throughout the month. Choose a group that suits your interests and schedule. Then join us for some stimulating discussions.

◆ Senior Book Club

First Monday of each month at 2 p.m.

June 6: South of Broad
by Pat Conroy

After his brother's suicide, Leopold Bloom King struggles along with the rest of his family in Charleston, South Carolina, until he begins to gather an intimate circle of friends, whose ties endure for two decades until a final, unexpected test of friendship.

July 11*: World Without End
by Ken Follett

In the town of Kingsbridge, a Gothic cathedral and the priory are at the center of a web of love and hate, greed and pride, ambition and revenge. Proponents of the old ways fiercely battle those with progressive minds, as the Black Death captures the city.

◆ We will meet on the second Monday in July due to the Fourth of July holiday.

Aug. 1: Murder on the Orient Express
by Agatha Christie

A Russian princess, a Hungarian count, a Swedish beauty, and an assortment of Americans, English and French are brought together on the elegant Orient Express. A brutal murder and an unexpected blizzard bring in the vacationing Hercule Poirot.

◆ Monday Evening Book Group

Third Monday of each month at 7 p.m.

June 20: Zeitoun
by Dave Eggers

This novel tells the story of one man's experience during and after Hurricane Katrina. Abdulrahman Zeitoun, a successful Syrian-born painting contractor, decides to stay in New Orleans and protect his property while his family flees. After the levees break, he uses a small canoe to rescue people, before being arrested by an armed squad and swept powerlessly into a vortex of bureaucratic brutality.

July 18: The Great Man
by Kate Christensen

Following the death of New York City painter Oscar Feldman, an artist known for his paintings of the female nude, two rival biographers set out to tell his life story, with the help of Oscar's wife Abigail, sister Maxine, and Teddy, his longtime mistress. A devastating secret threatens to come to light.

Aug. 15: Number9Dream
by David Mitchell

A young Japanese man's quest to find his estranged parents throws him into a bizarre world of mobsters, dream villains and cyber-tricksters.

Computer Services & Computer Classes

Bemis has 22 Internet access computers on the lower level of the library, plus another seven located in the Children's Room for use by our patrons in 5th grade and younger. Also, wireless Internet access is now available throughout the building for patrons with wireless-enabled laptops.

Currently, our computers use Microsoft XP operating systems and Microsoft Office 2003 software that includes Word, Excel, Access, PowerPoint and Publisher. All of our PCs are linked to printers. Printing costs are $0.10 a page for black only or $0.50 a page for color. Our computer lab has 12 PCs and may be scheduled for group use. We are happy to assist patrons individually at any time if you need help using the computers or the Internet.

We also offer free computer and Internet classes on a regular basis. To learn about or register for an upcoming class and/or group use of our computer lab, call the library at 303-795-3961 or stop by the Information Desk.

All classes and open computer lab are held from 9-10:30 a.m. except where noted.
