The city is estimating tax revenues to be about 4% higher in 2012 as compared to the 2011 budget.

- Tax Revenues (61%) are the largest revenue segment for the City of Littleton, with 74.0% of those taxes from retail sales tax. The city’s sales and use tax rate is 3.0%. Also included are property tax revenues which are 14.2% of total tax revenues. The levy remains at 6.662 mills and has not changed since 1991.

- Intergovernmental Revenues (24%) include a number of different sources of which the primary revenue stream is the fire protection agreement. This is an agreement between the City of Littleton, Littleton Fire Protection District and Highlands Ranch Metro District for fire protection services.

- Fines and Forfeitures (4%) are derived primarily from court fines.

- Franchise Fees (4%) are revenues from electric, gas, telephone and cable television companies in return for use of public rights of way.

- Other Revenues (3%) include licenses and permits, interfund transfers, reimbursements from other funds and other miscellaneous revenues.

- Charges for Services (3%) are fees for services provided by the city such as the administrative fee from the fire partners, courts costs, plan check fees, passport fees, museum store sales and other revenues.

- Investment Earnings (<1%) have largely declined in recent years in direct relation to the economy.
