With the goal to serve Littleton and the surrounding areas with the best tasting steaks possible, La Vaca Meat Company, Inc. opened its doors on May 22 at 2489 W. Main St. on the main level of the La Vaca Cattle Company building. For three generations the family-owned business has been raising calves and living off the land in Colorado, Nebraska, and Nevada. They have taken their vast industry knowledge and passion for excellent beef quality to form the new meat company, which features only steaks that have been aged 40 days to achieve maximum tenderness and flavor. La Vaca is open seven days a week. 720.502.4400; sales@lavacameat.com; www.LaVacaMeat.com

The SAS Comfort Shoes store opened this month in Aspen Grove (7301 S. Santa Fe Dr.) on the west side of the center between WhiteHouse/BlackMarket and Chico’s. Manager Janet Geist carries a range of men’s and women’s leather shoes that are handcrafted to be the best fitting and most comfortable shoes to be found. Customers can find shoes in sizes 6 to 15 for men and 4 to 12 for women and a variety of widths from slim to double wide depending on shoe size. Also featured in the store is a collection of leather purses. 303.797.2814; http://www.sasshoes.com/

A recent issue of the Denver Post profiled Altitude Paddleboards in its YourHub Section. Located at 2690 W. Main St., the focus of John and Nancy Bridenbaugh’s shop is stand-up paddleboarding (SUP), which they promise is an easy and accessible sport for beginners. Active in water sports for years in Hawaii, the couple discovered SUP after moving to Colorado. They use their years of experience with this sport to help each of their customers find the equipment that is just right for them, whether they just want to cruise around calm waters, race, surf or ride along moving water. In addition to high-quality paddleboards and accessories, the Bridenbaugh’s also offer demos and certified SUP instructions. Their store is open Wednesdays and Fridays and also by appointment. 720.810.4142; www.altitudepaddleboards.com
A Europtics store will be opening on Saturday, June 8 in Aspen Grove (7301 S. Santa Fe Dr.) at the north end of the center between Coldwater Creek and Talbots. The award-winning store will feature the finest in brand name designer eyewear from around the world, along with in-store eye exams. To celebrate their grand opening, frames will be offered at a 40% discount for customers purchasing prescription lenses. www.europtics.net

Insights

TAB-FASTIC! Tablets Offer Unique Marketing Opportunities
Tablet use is exploding. In fact, Forrester Research forecasts that by 2017 over 50% of the U.S. population will be tablets users. Several recent reports focus on the unique marketing opportunities the growing use of tablets offers businesses and echo one another in recommending businesses consider the demographics and use patterns of tablet users when putting together a marketing plan.

- Smart phones are used more frequently than tablets but tablet sessions are twice as long
- Tablet use is at its highest between 7 and 10 p.m. and exceeds smartphone use during this time
- 12% more men use smartphones than women; 3% more men than women use tablets
- 30 is the average age of a smartphone user while 34 is the average age of tablet users

Our team here in the Economic Development Department can work with you to develop a marketing strategy that includes customers and potential customers who are accessing your website and business information on a tablet. Please contact Jo Anne Ricca at 303-795-3748 to schedule a meeting. There is no charge for this service to registered Littleton businesses.
